YOU ARE CURRENTLY IN VIOLATION OF THE FOLLOWING:

ARTICLE 32.33 OF THE TEXAS PENAL CODE – HINDERING A SECURED CREDITOR

For the purpose of this section 'Security Interest' means an interest in personal property or fixtures that secures payment or performance of an obligation.

A person who has signed a security agreement creating a security in property or creating a lien on property commits an offense if, with intent to hinder enforcement of that interest or lien, he destroys, removes, conceals, encumbers, or otherwise harms or reduces the value of the property.

For purpose of this section, a person is presumed to have intended to hinder enforcement of the security interest or lien if, when any part of the debt secured by the security interest or lien was due, he failed:

1. to pay the part then due, and
2. if the secured party has made demand, to deliver possession of the secured property to the secured party

An offense under this section is a state jail felony if the value of the property is destroyed, removed, concealed, encumbered, or otherwise harmed or reduced in value. The fine for this offense may be $20,000.00 or more, up to $100,000.00.
